Tax Free Weekend is August 11-13.
Here are the top tips to help you get the most out of your back-to-school

Compare pricing at different retailers. Several apps, like RedLaser or ShopSavvy, can do it for you.

Get organized. Take an inventory of what you have on hand and what you need.

Save even more money by adding coupons and store promotions to your tax savings. Many retailers run special sales events during the tax-free weekend.

Check for student discounts. Best Buy, J.Crew and Banana Republic all offer discounts for students.

Don't think it's just for school supplies. Tax-free also applies to computers, tennis shoes, clothes and even printer paper.

Diapers, backpacks, scout uniforms and Halloween costumes are also included!

Football cleats, shoulder pads, helmets, jewelry, handbags, luggage, umbrellas, wallets and watches are not included.

The item must be under $100 to qualify for tax exemption.

Traditional Italian Fare with a Modern Twist

As soon as you step into Patrizio, you are transported to a modern Italian villa. The atmosphere mimics the food as it is traditional yet refined.

The menu is full of classic favorites, like Baked Ziti, Lasagna and Chicken Parmigiana. All artfully crafted and prepared in the traditional way. The house-made red sauce completes each dish, like a note to a familiar song. Patrizio also highlights seafood with specialties like Linguine with Mussels or Shrimp Tuscano with a gorgonzola pesto sauce. The Open-Face Ravioli is a delicious twist on a classic. Sautéed vegetables are folded inside a fresh pasta sheet and tossed with a roasted garlic cream sauce.

Boasting a wide selection of wine, Patrizio has the perfect glass to compliment your meal. And you'll want to save room for something sweet because they have a great dessert menu. The Double Chocolate Cake is decadent and delicious, while the Italian Cream Cake is fluffy and airy.

Patrizio offers authentic flavors of Italy without having to leave Highland Village.

Book Readers Supper Club

The Wright Brothers, written by award-winning historian/author David McCullough, is the August selection for the Highland Shores Book Readers' Supper Club. This biography presents a rich and interesting story of the pioneers of flight. Key to their interest in building an airplane was the influence of their father, Milton, who encouraged their love of learning and mechanical aptitude. Also influential in their lives was their sister, Katherine, who provided a solid rock of encouragement and support. While detractors were many, the steely conviction of a couple of brothers from Ohio was able to change the course of human history.

Please join us on Thursday, August 3rd at 6 p.m. for a lively discussion and dinner, with participants contributing to the main course. For more information, contact Diane Brown at 972-317-0801 or dbrown3801@verizon.net.
