"Lee was fantastic!!! She took care of all the details so I didn't have to. I hadn't had a real estate transaction in 29 years and of course was not sure of what to do and when, but she handled everything for me. She told me how to make my house most marketable and I got my asking price. I highly recommend her if you need to buy or sell a house!"

Pools

Pool tags are available for pick-up at the Management Office, Monday through Friday, 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM. A form of identification with proof of address is required. Only Highland Shores homeowners may pick up pool tags.

If you are unable to stop by the office during the week, you can arrange to have pool tags delivered to the pool of your choosing. Send an e-mail to shoreline@highlandshores.net with name, address, number of tags needed, and which pool you would like them delivered to.

Homeowners are allowed one pool tag for every family member that is 13 years of age and older. You are allowed two guests per pool tag. Children under the age of 13 do not count as a guest against a pool tag.

Renters must bring a letter or e-mail shoreline@highlandshores.net from the owner permitting pick-up of tags (unless previously granted). The letter should have the owner's name, address, and phone number along with the tenant's name, property address, and phone number. Change of tenants requires a new approval letter or e-mail from the owner.

Visit www.highlandshores.net/pools for the pool schedules, rules, and pool tag information.

Girl on a Train

A.J. Wines

Mystery/Thriller/Crime/Noir

Everything points to suicide - but I saw her face... Headstrong Journalist, Anna Rothman, knows what suicide looks like - her own husband killed himself five years earlier. When Elly Swift, an agitated passenger beside her on a train, leaves a locket in Anna's bag before jumping onto the tracks, Anna starts asking awkward questions. But everything points to suicide and the police close the case. Anna, however, believes Elly's fears for Toby, her young nephew, missing since being snatched from St Stephen's church six months ago, fail to explain the true reason behind Elly's distress. Through a series of hidden messages Elly left behind, Anna embarks on a dangerous crusade to track down Toby and find Elly's killer. But nothing is as it seems and Anna opens a can of worms that throws into question even her own husband's suicide - before the threads of the mystery converge in an astonishing conclusion.

Book Readers Supper Club

Where the Crawdads Sing, a current New York Times bestselling novel by Delia Owens, is the August selection for the Highland Shores Readers' Supper Club. Set in the fictional town of Barkley Cove on the North Carolina coast, Kya Clark learns to survive on her own after her family abandons her, first her mother in 1952 when she is six, and later her four siblings and father. Kya, nicknamed the "Marsh Girl" by the townspeople because of her lack of contact with civilization, finds solace in nature, becoming captivated by the surrounding in which she inhabits.

Still, though, she craves human contact, and two young men in town appear to provide that. However, the discovery of the body of former high school football hero, Chase Andrews, in late 1969, one of those young men, sets Kya's life on a different trajectory.

Please join us on Thursday, August 1 at 6:00 PM for a lively discussion and dinner, with participants contributing to the main course. For more information, contact Diane Brown at 972-317-0801 or dbrown3801@verizon.net.
