In Loving Memory

Bill Farness, HSOA Board member for over 26 years and Board President for most of those years, passed away on Thursday, January 3, 2019. Bill devoted so much time and effort into making Highland Shores the great community it is today. We will all miss his detailed knowledge of the history and development of Highland Shores, as well as his passion for this community.

There will be a memorial service at the Lamb of God Lutheran Church at 1401 Cross Timbers Road in Flower Mound on Saturday, February 23, 2019. The visitation will begin at 10:00 a.m. followed by a memorial ceremony at 11:00 a.m.

Introducing your Baby to your Dog

Bringing home a new baby is one of the happiest times in a couple's life, but it can be very confusing for your dog. These tips can help make the transition smoother and create a lifelong bond between your new baby and his or her four-legged sibling.

1. Get your dog ready by enrolling him in an obedience class.
2. Make gradual changes to your pup's routines so he doesn't associate the changes with the baby.
3. Play a recording of baby sounds so your furry friend can become familiar with the new noises.
4. Bring an item that has your baby's scent, like a burp cloth, home from the hospital so your dog can learn the new scent.
5. Greet your dog alone when you first arrive with the newborn, then slowly introduce him to the baby.
6. Keep the baby elevated when interacting with your dog.
7. Give your dog extra attention when the baby is around.
8. Don't scold your four-legged family member for picking up the baby's toys. Replace the baby toy with a dog toy.
9. Try to prevent your baby from pulling on the dog's tail and ears.
10. Keep your dog's crate as a baby-free zone, so he can escape if he needs to.

Book Readers Supper Club

Mennonite in a Little Black Dress, by Rhoda Janzen, is the February selection for the Highland Shores Readers' Supper Club. Janzen, a poet and academic, reveals a different side of herself in this humorous, yet sometimes bittersweet, memoir about her return to Mennonite roots after a series of unfortunate events. In quick succession, she has a hysterectomy that results in punctured organs, her husband of 15 years leaves her for a man and she is injured in a car accident.

Janzen spends her sabbatical with her parents in California. They are well-meaning and kind but have a different take on the world, seen through their Mennonite background. By reconnecting with her parents and her upbringing, she is able to get perspective on her marriage and see a different future for herself.

Please join us on Thursday, February 7th at 6:00 p.m. for a lively discussion and dinner, with participants contributing to the main course. For more information, contact Diane Brown at 972-317-0801 or dbrown3801@verizon.net.

Of Human Bondage
W. Somerset Maugham
Classic

Of Human Bondage gives a harrowing depiction of unrequited love. Philip Carey, a sensitive orphan born with a clubfoot, finds himself in desperate need of passion and inspiration. He abandons his studies to travel to Paris, where he nurses ambitions of becoming a great artist. Philip's youthful idealism erodes, however, as he comes face-to-face with his own mediocrity. After returning to London to study medicine, he becomes wildly infatuated with Mildred, a vulgar, tawdry waitress, and begins a doomed love affair that will change the course of his life.

This semi-autobiographical novel combines the values of the Victorian era with the prevailing irony and despair of the early twentieth century. Unsentimental yet bursting with deep feeling, Of Human Bondage remains Maugham's most complete statement of the importance of physical & spiritual liberty.
