Pet Corner

Pet Travel Tips

Summer is here and that means it's time for vacation! But traveling can be stressful for your four-legged family members. Here's some tips to keep your furry companions comfortable and safe while you hit the road or take flight.

1. Get a checkup prior to the trip to ensure vaccinations are up-to-date and your furry friend is healthy enough for travel.
2. Book a direct flight whenever possible. This decreases the chances that your pet may be left on the tarmac or mishandled during a layover.
3. Whether you're driving or flying, keep your pets safe and secure in a well-ventilated crate. Unrestrained dogs and cats can be injured if the car makes an abrupt stop.
4. Make a pet friendly travel kit. Pack a bowl, leash, plastic bags, medication and brush to ensure you have all of your pet's essentials.
5. Take extra food and plenty of water so you'll be prepared for any delays or unexpected turns along the way.
6. Be sure to pack your pet's favorite blanket or toy to help them feel more comfortable during the trip.
7. Never leave your canine companion or feline friend in a parked vehicle. Even with the windows cracked, the temperature can reach 110 degrees in just 10 minutes on an 85-degree day.
8. Book pet-friendly hotels. You can find a list of those at www.gopetfriendly.com.
9. If you're on the open road, don't forget to make a pit stop every two to three hours to let your pet use the bathroom and get some exercise.
10. Keep your four-legged friend calm and relaxed by using a Thundershirt. It's a drug-free option for animals that suffer from anxiety.

This summer, imaginations take flight.

Restaurant Spotlight

South of the Border Taste in our Backyard

The smell of fresh-baked tortillas greets you as you enter. The sound of crackling fajitas fills the air. Colorful décor creates a feast for your eyes. And the food delights your palette. Fresco's entices all of the senses.

Opened in 2003, Fresco's offers authentic Tex Mex. Every year, Head Chef David Mitchell travels to various regions of Mexico to study local cuisine. He spends time learning how to craft each dish and how that food is incorporated into Mexican culture. Mitchell takes these flavors and ideas then adds his own twist. "We have the items that you would expect at a Mexican restaurant...however, if you are looking for something a little more adventurous, just take a look around our menu," says Fresco's Social Media Manager Corey Sears.

Utilizing the freshest ingredients, Fresco's provides a vast menu with traditional options as well as unique ones. The mesquite-grilled chicken with white wine garlic sauce is fantastic. Other specialties include the Cochinita Pibil, a Yucatecan pork with Mexican street corn, and brisquet tamales. Traditional Tex Mex favorites are highlighted by authentic flavors and scrumptious sides, like cheddar red pepper mashed potatoes and poblano rice.

Nothing compliments delicious Tex Mex like a cold drink. You can sip on a frozen margarita or Mexican beer on Fresco's massive patio. The expansive space offers lounge areas with fans so you can relax and enjoy your meal. Their traditional margarita is superb, with classic flavors of tequila and lime. They also offer fruity options, like sangria and pineapple mojito, perfect for those hot summer days.

Fresco's gives you a taste of Mexico right in your own backyard. Sears says, "We go great lengths to develop our dishes and that is why Fresco's is a little outside of the box when compared to your typical Tex-Mex restaurant."

Book Readers Supper Club

Bossypants, by Tina Fey, is the June selection for the Highland Shores Book Readers' Supper Club. Fey's book is not the tell-all, self-confessional, introspective look at one's life type of memoir that readers generally expect. Bossypants, as its title might imply, consists mainly of somewhat tongue-in-cheek autobiographical antidotes, commentaries about life in the entertainment industry and as a working mother, and experiences on Saturday Night Live. Indeed, Fey's comic view of the world is reflected as a series of sketch comedies, not coincidentally similar to those on Saturday Night Live.

Please join us on Thursday, June 1st at 6 p.m. for a lively discussion and dinner, with participants contributing to the main course. For more information, contact Diane Brown at 972-317-0801 or dbrown3801@verizon.net.
