FALL 2020 COMMUNITY-WIDE GARAGE SALE CANCELLED

The cancellation of the Fall Community-Wide Garage Sale was decided with health and safety of Highland Shores residents as the utmost priority.

Please remember that you are welcome to conduct your own garage sale. No directional or garage sale signs are permitted to be put out within the Highland Shores Community, Monday through Friday. You may put out signs on Saturday, provided you remove them before Monday morning.

For your safety and for the safety of others, please remember to wear a mask and require anyone who attends to wear a mask.

We will plan to have another Community-Wide Garage Sale in Spring 2021.

Tennis Court Rules & Regulations Reminder

Resurfacing projects at tennis courts 3, 4, 5, and 6 were recently completed. During a recent inspection, the Association observed powdered chalk lines on courts 5 and 6 to create what appears to be a pickleball court. We request that you refrain from using any type of chalk and tape on any of the tennis courts. As the HSOA Rules and Regulations state, tennis courts are for playing tennis ONLY. No skateboards, bicycles, street hockey, rollerblade, and/or artistic sidewalk chalk, etc. are allowed on the courts. Thank you for your attention to this.

THE HIGHLAND SHORES

BOOK CLUB

We meet the first Monday of every month at the Community Center.

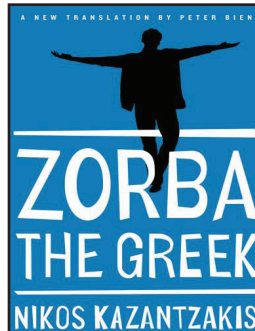

Zorba the Greek
Nikos Kazantzakis

Zorba the Greek, is, on one hand, the story of a Greek working man named Zorba, a passionate lover of life, the unnamed narrator who he accompanies to Crete to work in a lignite mine, and the men and women of the town where they settle. On the other hand it is the story of God and man, The Devil and the Saints; the struggle of men to find their souls and purpose in life and it is about love, courage and faith.

Zorba has been acclaimed as one of the truly memorable creations of literature—a character created on a huge scale in the tradition of Falstaff and Sancho Panza. His years have not dimmed the gusto and amazement with which he responds to all life offers him, whether he is working in the mine, confronting mad monks in a mountain monastery, embellishing the tales of his life or making love to avoid sin. Zorba's life is rich with all the joys and sorrows that living brings and his example awakens in the narrator an understanding of the true meaning of humanity. This is one of the greatest life-affirming novels of our time.

Part of the modern literary canon, Zorba the Greek, has achieved widespread international acclaim and recognition. This new edition translated, directly from Kazantzakis's Greek original, is a more faithful rendition of his original language, ideas, and story, and presents Zorba as the author meant him to be.

The Book Club will meet August 31 at 7:00 PM. Please contact Mary-Ellen McComb by e-mail for the meeting location (in-person or Zoom) at memccomb@derali.com.

Nifty & Fifty Empty Nesters Potluck

Nifty Fifty will not meet at the Community Center during the month of August. Singles and Couples Welcome!

Are you an empty nester? Mingle with your neighbors in the 50+ age group at the Community Center and enjoy a home-cooked meal! To register, contact Pattie at 972-672-9560 or pjchaidsiak@gmail.com. New members are always welcome! Come join the fun!

Book Readers Supper Club

Small Great Things, by Jodi Picoult, is the August selection for the Highland Shores Readers' Supper Club. The novel, whose title is taken from a quote by Martin Luther King, Jr., focuses upon an African-American labor and delivery nurse at a Connecticut hospital, Ruth Jefferson, who has over twenty years of experience. On her shift one night, she starts to perform a routine checkup of a newborn, only to be reassigned because the parents of the baby, who are white supremacists, don't want her to handle their child.

The next day, despite the reassignment, Ruth is the only person in the nursery when the baby goes into cardiac arrest, so she has to decide what to do. However, because the baby dies, Ruth is charged with murder and negligent homicide in a trial that is highly publicized. Ruth and her white public defender, Kennedy McQuarrie, despite their different backgrounds, must try to understand each in order to mount the best defense.

The Book Readers Supper Club will not meet at the Community Center during the month of August. For more information, contact Diane Brown at 972-317-0801 or dbrown3801@verizon.net.

Bunco is a fun, easy game and a GREAT way to meet new friends. The Bunco Club meets the third Thursday of every month from 7:00-10:30 PM at the Community Center. It costs $7.00 to play, and the group asks that you bring an adult beverage or a snack to share. A fun night full of yummy snacks and lots of laughs is guaranteed.

The Bunco Club will not meet at the Community Center during the month of August. For more information and to register, contact Tatum Dezzutti at tatumdezz@gmail.com.
